Ti, ti te set minga de Milàn! You, you're not from Milano!

This famous Milanese phrase is still used proudly in the local dialect to celebrate the city's heritage. Yet the capital of Lombardia is also Italy's most multicultural city, making its twin city, Toronto, the natural destination with which to share Milano's unique cuisine and culture. In the end, no-one is from Milano but everyone is from Milano!

I PIATTI ALLA MILANESE

la cutuleta a la milanese Cotoletta alla Milanese

Breaded, Fried, and Served Simply with Seasonal Greens, Lemon, and Extra Virgin Olive Oil

The first mentions of this traditional dish from Milan date back to 1134, when the Abbott of the Basilica di Sant'Ambrogio served a meal of fried and breaded veal loin

la vera cutuleta al la milanese l'è quella con l'oss e la dev vess leggerment tajada con el cortell, de la part de foera, se no, con la cottura, la fa' i rizz

la vera cotoletta alla milanese è quella con l'osso e deve essere tagliata col coltello sul lato esterno, cosicché nella cottura non possa arricciarsi

The true cotoletta alla milanese must be served bone-in, and it should be cut on the outer edge before cooking, so that it won't shrink

Eataly Ama Milano

EATALY LOVES MILAN

De Milan ghe n'è domà vun
Di Milano ce n'è uno solo
There's only one Milano!

IL CENACOLO DI LEONARDO DA VINCI A MILANO

Eataly is committed to preserving Italian masterpieces – including The Last Supper by Leonardo da Vinci, painted in the late 15th century and housed in the church of Santa Maria delle Grazie.

Since 2017, Eataly has partnered with Italy's Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities and Tourism to sponsor an air-filtration system that filters cool, clean air into the convent every day, to protect the fragile fresco for centuries to come.

IL DUOMO DI MILANO

With its 135 gargoyles and signature spires, Milan's gothic marble cathedral is one of the most iconic destinations in the city, not to mention the world. To raise awareness and funds for its restoration, Eataly collaborated with the International Patrons of the Duomo to "adopt" a few of the cathedral's gargoyles, even bringing select statues to our New York City Flatiron location in 2015 for a special exhibition.
