VIE DI ROMANS

Friuli Venezia Giulia, the most northeastern region of Italy, is located between the Alps and the Adriatic Sea, which is the perfect combination to create unique Terroir and Microclimate. The wines of this region are fragrant, structured and elegant.

The Gallo family's dedication to wines and vineyards dates back to over a century ago. In 1982, they decided to develop single, different vineyards, depending on soil and climate, best suited for different grape varieties. Vie Di Romans (The Road of the Romans) places on the wine-label both the grape variety and the vineyard name.
